VOL. II. RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY, AUGUST 6, 1867. NO. 307.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

PRINCIPALS AND ACCESSORIES.

We called attention the other day to the remarkable declaration of Mr. Pierrepont, one of the counsel for the prosecution in the Surratt case, that in the cases of persons indicted for murdering a President there were no accessories—all the parties were principals. In his speech the next day, Mr. Merrick alluded to this degrading doctrine as follows:

"I must confess that I listened to that proposition yesterday with infinite amazement, not to say some amusement and a mingled pleasure. With amazement, that a lawyer of the reputation of the gentleman should advance a doctrine such as that; and with pleasure, when I felt that he would not have perilled his reputation by such a doctrine, except as the last resort for a desperate cause.

And he tells your Honor that it is your extraordinary privilege to enunciate from the bench, for the first time in America, this doctrine. Well, sir, he may regard it as a privilege; but, as the representative of this young man before your Honor and this jury, I will say that I do not want you to be exercising privileges, or decorating your name with the enunciation of new principles. I want you to exercise the duty of determining the law as it is, not to announce law that has never heretofore been announced in the country. He says it is the law of France, and it is the law of England. As I said the other day, there is a class of gentlemen in the United States who, since the commencement of our late war, seem to have entirely lost sight of all the early and glorious traditions of our country, and abandoned all love for constitutional liberty and become dazzled with the prospective glory of stars and garters, titles of nobility and rank, crowns and diadems, dancing in mazy twistings before their eyes. There is a class of men like that, your Honor; and it may be that in the days of republican liberty we will have to meet that class of men in order to preserve our Constitution. Ideas of monarchy and rank are growing among the people. Why, the very dead of the Revolution, of the last war with Britain, and of the late war for freedom and constitutional independence, rise to condemn the gentleman and to repudiate his doctrine. Give me the Constitution of my country and her ancient liberty, undimmed by the darkness of a single declaration of title or of honor. The President is a simple American citizen, the representative of the free people of America. The monarchy of this country, grand and sacred beyond the touch, the reach of an assault, is the embodied will of the people in the Constitution of the United States; our only emperor, our only king, is the Constitution of the United States.—It is the only sovereign of a republic; the supreme law of the land; and when that ceases to be the supreme law of the land, and we attach to individuals in office special privileges, special powers, and a special grace, we take away a part of the sanctity that belongs to that Constitution to give it to men. Sir, I will never do it. If I might venture to use the language of the gentle man, and did not feel that it was transcending the propriety of forensic discussion and discourse, I would say that your Honor dare not do it.

Can he find a parallel case in England? Was anybody ever tried there for killing the President of the United States? No, sir. What will he do? He may find a case for compassing the King's death. Has the President of the United States ever had his temples pressed with a crown? Is he the State? He says he can find an authority in France. I grant it. To imagine the death of Louis Napoleon by the laws of France is treason. Was it treason here to imagine the death of Andrew Johnson? Is it treason to wish his death? If it be, then, when your grand jury meets, charge them to indict Thaddeus Stevens and all his corps.—[Sensation.] No, sir; it is not treason.—We can wish what we please in this free land, and public men are open to the freest and severest criticism. If in the Corps Legislatif an individual passes censure on the Emperor, what is the consequence?—The President stops him, or the sanctity of the Imperial person will not bear censure of a private individual. How is it here?—Here, thanks be to God, we have freedom of speech, with a restored Constitution, temporarily suspended by usurping power, but once again the birth-right of Americans. He may find you a case in France, and he may find you a case in England, where imagining or conspiring the death of the sovereign is treason; but that is not a parallel case. The pride of our country is, that neither the anointed of men nor the anointed of the Lord claim political power by virtue of the anointment.

There is no sanctity about the person of our President. The pride of our free institutions is that the President of the United States is like a private man. He is a servant, crowned by the hearts of the people, and sustained by them. He claims no fictitious authority—no fictitious sanctity.—The line of his duty is marked by the Constitution. The extent of his power is defined by law, and his relation to the people is well ascertained. If he cannot find in England any authority to controvert the principles I have laid before your Honor, can he find any in America? I will show your Honor that in the United States we have repeated again and again, ratified and confirmed, the principles which I have been reading from the English law."

"SECOND SOBER THOUGHTS."

Reflecting people begin to lift their eyes and thoughts a very little above the horizon of the military reconstruction law, discussing, in the future, what may prove anything but beneficial to those who are casting the responsibilities of Government upon a class just redeemed from two centuries of slavery. The Springfield Republican indulges in such reflections as follows:

"THE PRESENT DANGER IN THE SOUTH.—The prospect that at the first election under the reconstruction acts the Southern States will be carried by the Republicans is in itself gratifying. But the way in which this is to happen gives to thoughtful men some anxieties for the future. The foresight that the negro vote is to control everything is not having a favorable influence upon the white men of the South, and we cannot forget that the whites constitute two-thirds of the population of the State that are to be surrendered to the control of a mass of ignorant blacks, and that these white men must inevitably become the dominant class very soon, whatever happens this year. A majority of the whites will not attempt to register, or are excluded if they attempt, and of those registering it is thought that a majority will vote against reconstruction on the Congressional plan. The blacks, and a small fraction of the whites, will do the voting and reconstructing, and have possession of the State machinery under the new government. It will be "good enough" for the Obstructionists, indeed, but how is it coming out? We know what the Hunnicutts and other leaders of the negroes have threatened, and what hopes and purposes they have raised among their credulous followers. Shall we see Brownlow despotism and anarchy extended over the entire South for the next ten years, and order preserved only by keeping the eight millions of whites quiet under the rule of four millions of negroes by stress of Federal bayonets?"

PASSED AT THE JULY SESSION.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it is hereby declared to have been the true intent and meaning of the act of the second day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, entitled an act for the more efficient government of the rebel States, and of the act supplementary thereto, passed on the 24th. day of March, in the year 1867, that the governments then existing in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas and Arkansas were illegal and void, and thereafter the same governments, if continued, were to be continued subject in all respects to the military commanders of the respective Districts and to the authority of Congress.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That the commander of any district named in said act shall have power, subject to the approval of the General of the armies of the United States, to have effect till disapproved, whenever in the opinion of such commander the proper administration of said act shall require it, to suspend or remove from office, or from the performance of official duties and the exercise of official powers, any officer or person holding or exercising, or professing to hold or exercise, any civil or military office or duty in such district, under any power, election, appointment, or authority derived from or granted by, or claimed under any so-called State or the government thereof, or any municipal or other division thereof, and upon such suspension or removal such commander, subject to the approval of the General aforesaid, shall have the power to provide from time to time for the performance of the said duties of such officer or person so suspended or removed, by the detail of some competent officer or soldier of the army or by the appointment of some other person to perform the same, and to fill vacancies occasioned by death, resignation or otherwise.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted, That the General of the armies of the United States shall be invested with all the powers of suspension, removal, appointment and detail granted in the preceding section to district commanders.

SECTION 4. And be it further enacted, That the acts of the officers of the army already done in removing in said districts persons exercising the functions of civil officers and appointing others in their stead are hereby confirmed; provided that any person heretofore or hereafter appointed by any district commander to exercise the functions of any civil office may be removed, either by the military officer in command of the district or by the General of the army; and it shall be the duty of commanders to remove from office, as aforesaid, all persons who are disloyal to the government of the United States, or who use their official influence in any manner to hinder, delay, prevent or obstruct the due and proper administration of this act, and the acts to which this is supplementary.

SECTION 5. And be it further enacted, That the boards of registration provided for in the act entitled "an act supplementary to an act entitled 'an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States,' passed March 2, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, shall have power, and it shall be their duty, before allowing the registration of any person, to ascertain upon such facts or information as they can obtain, whether such person is entitled to be registered under said act, and the oath required by said act shall not be conclusive on such question, and no person shall be registered unless such board shall decide that he is entitled thereto; and such board shall also have power to examine under oath (to be administered by any member of such board) any one touching the qualification of any person claiming registration. But in every case of a refusal by the board to register an applicant, made in every case hereinafter provided, the board shall make a note or memorandum, which shall be returned with the registration list to the commanding Generals of the Districts, setting forth the ground of such refusal, or such striking from the list: Provided, that no person shall be disqualified, as a member of any board of registration, by reason of race or color.

SECTION 6. And be it further enacted, That the true intent and meaning of the oath prescribed in said supplementary act is (among other things) that no person who has been a member of the Legislature of any State or who has held any executive or judicial office in any State, whether he has taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States or not, and whether he was holding such office at the commencement of the rebellion or had held it before, and who has afterward engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof, is entitled to be registered or to vote; and the words "executive or judicial office in any State" in said oath mentioned shall be construed to include all civil offices created by law for the administration of the general law of the State, or for the administration of justice.

SECTION 7. And be it further enacted, That the time for completing the original registration provided for in said act may, in the discretion of the commander of any district, be extended to the 1st. day of October, 1867; and the boards of registration shall have power, and it shall be their duty, commencing fourteen days prior to any election under said act, and upon reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of three days the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the list. And such board shall also during the same period, add to such registry the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said act who have not been already registered, and no person shall at any time be entitled to be registered or to vote by reason of any executive pardon or amnesty for any act or thing which, without such pardon or amnesty, would disqualify him from registration or voting.

SECTION 8. And be it further enacted, That section 4 of the said last-named act shall be construed to authorize the commanding general named therein, whenever he shall deem it needful, to remove any member of a board of registration, and to appoint another person in his stead, and to fill any vacancy in such board.

SECTION 9. That all members of said Boards of Registration and all persons hereafter elected or appointed to office in said military districts, under any so-called State or municipal authority or by detail or appointment of the District Commanders, shall be required to take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

SECTION 10. That no District Commander or member of the Board of registration or any of the officers or appointees acting under them shall be bound in his action by any opinion of any civil officer of the United States.

SECTION 11. That all the provisions of this act, and the acts to which this is supplementary, shall be construed liberally, to the end that all the intents thereof may be fully and perfectly carried out.

JUDGE CHASE vs. GEN. SICKLES.

It will be remembered that, at the recent U. S. Circuit Court, Chief Justice Chase gave the opinion that order No. 10 of Maj. Gen. Sickles, while it might suspend or abrogate any State laws existing in North or South Carolina, yet was not intended, nor could it operate, to suspend the laws of the United States. A number of judgments for debt, created directly between the dates named by Gen. Sickles in order No. 10, which suspends all collection processes for a year, were ordered by the U. S. Circuit Court. Marshal Goodloe, in the performance of his duty, issued the necessary process for collection. The attention of Col. Frank, Commandant of the post at Wilmington, was called to the subject, and, as he regarded it as a violation of order No. 10, he suspended the operation of certain processes until further orders.

The interpretation of order No. 10 as to the powers of Maj. Gen. Sickles, at Washington city, by the Attorney General, sustains the opinion of Chief Justice Chase, as delivered at the Court here, and it is understood that the government at Washington will sustain Marshal Goodloe in the execution of his duty.

We feel no interest in the matter in conflict, but for the manifest injustice to our people and merchants involved in the question, and that we are always committed in behalf of the vindication of the Constitution and the laws. We do not hesitate, therefore, to say that, so far we can see, the Chief Justice and the Attorney General occupy this ground: Their position evidently subjects the reconstruction legislation of Congress to the severest criticism, and to the charge of looseness and a disregard of the Constitution. If the Congressional Reconstruction legislation be the law of the land, and that it is the law, until repealed or pronounced by competent authority void, no one can doubt, it strikes us as very clear, that Lt. Col. Frank is right and that Maj. Gen. Sickles will sustain him.—We think so for the following reasons:

1. The Reconstruction Acts confer upon the District Commanders plenary powers of government, both over civil and military matters, within their respective Districts.—To remove all doubt, the second supplemental bill, passed at the recent session of Congress, re asserts their powers and confirms this as the correct interpretation of the first Act. These Reconstruction Acts, if interpreted by the Constitution and the laws, are in effect a nullity, but, if interpreted by the Congress, they do in effect suspend the Constitution of the United States, and all laws contrary to the intent and meaning of the Reconstruction Acts; or, perhaps, it is better to say, as Mr. Stevens understands it, the Reconstruction Acts are above and beyond the Constitution, that instrument having nothing to do with the question of reconstruction, and, by consequence, the whole matter is entirely within the jurisdiction of Congress, and of Congress alone. Mr. Stevens will pardon us, if we inquire, if the Constitution of the United States has nothing to do with the case, how comes it to pass, that Congress has anything to do with it? Where does Congress derive all its powers, except from the Constitution? If that instrument does not confer the power, Congress has none. It is sheer nonsense in a representative government with limited powers, to intimate or say, that Congress derives its powers from the people or the "higher law."

2. The District Commanders not only possess plenary powers of government over all civil and military matters, but they are the sole interpreters of the law and of their duty under it, within their jurisdiction.—So that all Constitutions or laws, however interpreted, whether State or National, which interfere with the powers and objects of the District Commanders in effecting reconstruction, are evidently suspended or held in abeyance to this one great object of Congress.

3. The poverty of our people and their indebtedness, at a very early period, attracted the attention of Gen. Sickles, and excited his sympathy. The Legislatures of North and South Carolina had passed stay laws, suspending judgments and executions, but the courts of South Carolina had pronounced the stay-law unconstitutional and it was understood that the courts of this State would do the same. The people appealed to Maj. Gen. Sickles for relief, and he met the call promptly by issuing Order No. 10, arresting all processes for the collection of debts incurred before or during the war, for twelve months. If the legislative stay laws were unconstitutional, so was Gen. Sickles' Order No. 10, yet he acted in the emergency as he felt necessity required, and as he felt himself empowered to do by the acts of Congress. These acts, to all intents and purposes, ignored the existence of the Constitution over the States divided into military districts, and, in order to enable him in his judgment to meet the wishes of Congress, it was as essential to his success to ignore the existence of all United States laws which interfered with the plan of reconstruction and the preservation of order, as of the laws of the State. What avail is order No. 10, if parties can sue in the United States courts in matters of debt in violation of it? What relief and what assurance for the preservation of order, if parties can collect money through a United States court, which they are prohibited from doing in the State courts? Nay, the effect of it is to produce the greatest amount of distress and discontent, if citizens of Military District No. 2 are prohibited from collecting what is due them, by Order No. 10, when they are liable to be forced to pay their debts by the United States court? How can they pay?

Let us not be misunderstood as approving in any case the violation of the Constitution and of the laws, either of the U. S., or of the States, but if Maj. Gen. Sickles contends that his order No. 10 applies with equal force to the acts of the United States Courts as to the State Courts in his jurisdiction, we shall contend that he is consistent, and that he is sustained by the Congressional interpretation of his powers and duties as laid down in the Reconstruction Acts.

THE REGISTRATION ORDER.

We have received (but, unaccountably, at too late an hour to be inserted in to day's Sentinel,) the regulations for registration, embodied in Gen. Order No. 65 from the Headquarters of the Second Military District. They shall appear to-morrow.

To our surprise, and, we may say, regret, Gen. Sickles places no construction upon points susceptible of variant interpretation, but simply refers Registrars to the acts of Congress.

The regulations relate to the general manner of conducting registration, prescribe penalties for obstructions thereto, define the rights of challengers, &c.

As heretofore stated, Registration will commence on the 15th inst., and must be completed, throughout the State, by the 1st day of October.

Local regulations will be prescribed by the Registrars themselves, and each neighborhood will be in due time notified of everything that it concerns the people to know.

WENDELL PHILLIPS' paper, the Anti-Slavery Standard, vehemently opposes Gen. Grant for the Presidency. It declares it simply impossible that the Republicans can support a man who officially indorsed President Johnson's policy three weeks after Congress had "contemptuously repudiated" it; who brought the whole weight of his high station and great fame to its support; who certified, nearly two years ago, as the result of recent personal observation, that the South could be safely re-admitted; who thus sided with the President after the rupture between him and Congress, and aided the President in an attempt to carry out his policy!

THE RICHMOND ENQUIRER, speaking of the repudiation of the white "co-operationists" of Virginia by Hunnicutt and his crew, says:

"We are sorry for these unfortunates. In spite of the warnings which we have been giving them for weeks, they heedlessly rushed into the filthy embraces of a hideous party, and now lie so low that even the negroes treat them with contempt."

BROWNLOW'S majority in Tennessee will probably reach 25,000. There is no good reason why he did not make it 50,000 just as well.

STATE NEWS.

——The Index says that a protracted meeting is in progress at the Baptist Church in Henderson, conducted by Revs. W. T. Brooks and W. M. Wingate, of Wake Forest College. Large, attentive and interested audiences have been present.

——The Southerner says that Gen. W. G. Lewis, having received the appointment of Chief Engineer of the Williamston & Tarboro Railroad, will commence the preliminary surveys at once. He will be assisted in the work by Capt. Calder Turner, of Salisbury, N. C., who acquired a thorough practical knowledge of his profession, while engaged in similar work on the Western Extension of the North Carolina Rail Road.

——We clip the following announcement extra-ordinary from the last Tarboro Southerner:

"As Science, Civilization and Freedom advance, so must we expect to see in our midst the exponents and advocates of each particular dogma, irrespective of race, color or sex.

It was announced on Tuesday last that Mrs. Frances E. W. Harper, a colored woman, would deliver a lecture that night, at the Colored Church, on the "Nation's Great Opportunity," and duty calling us in that direction, we listened attentively to her remarks, delivered to a crowded and interested audience.

While detecting many errors in the facts and theories advanced, we must still confess that we were most agreeably surprised at the elegance and beauty attending many portions of the Lecture.

She utterly disclaimed any allegiance or duty to any political organization or party, but through her discourse clearly disclosed her Radical proclivities, and, while landing to the skies Northern philanthropy, mercilessly abused and ridiculed Southern inhumanity and cruelty.

Much good advice was given, which, followed out, must greatly advance the future happiness and success of her race. Among other things we were glad to see the vile attempts of Southern agitators and demagogues were fully understood and despised. W. W. Holden was particularly noticed among this class, and the colored people were warned against this man, who now with brazen face and servile dependence gives the lie to his life long career and principles.

Altogether it was a most respectable lecture, and we trust will have the good effect evidently desired by the lecturer."

——The Old North State confirms the rumor that Lieut. Dewcese is under arrest, by order of Gen. Sickles. It has the facts from Lieut. D. himself. Among the charges is the one, that, while an officer of the army, he was going about and making political harangues.

The Radicals of Pennsylvania were afraid to put even a mild negro-suffrage resolution in their State platform. But, Sambo in the lead or at the wheel, they will have to go in the wagon when Stevens and Sumner start the team.—Philadelphia Age.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

CATAWBA SPRINGS, Aug. 3, 1867.

Messrs. Pell and Gales:—The top o' the morning to you, gentlemen, and if it breaks as beautifully and as cold in Raleigh as it does over Catawba, you will be fortunate indeed.

The change from the heat of Summer to the refreshing coolness of October is delightful, and as we human beings "be all poor creturs," as the once famous widow Bedotte was wont to exclaim, and are intimately affected by our outward surroundings, the effect of the crisp, bracing atmosphere is invigorating to a wonderful degree.

It is somewhat mortifying,—is it not?—to be conscious how greatly we are dependent on accessories and creature comforts, in order to maintain the right and agreeable equipoise of mind and spirit? To confess that a good dinner is the motive cause of a genial manner and that general expansion of the heart in favor of all humanity, which one experiences to so high a degree after "supping with Lucullus!" To know that a cup of good tea is the synonyme for benevolent cheerfulness, and a hard and uncomfortable bed that of an equally uncompromising temper? Well, I suppose it must be so to the end of the world, as it certainly has been so from the beginning! We all know that Eve and Adam, lord of creation as he undoubtedly was, turned from all the pleasures of Paradise to —— eating!

That last word brings me to the object which occupies us Spring people in a most agreeable manner for at least a —— of our time. How can we help it? The air and the water affect the appetite in a way that makes one feel almost as hungry as Stonewall Jackson's soldiers used to be when going into action; and then Col. Wyatt provides the best kind of fare, which, being submitted to the supervision of Mrs. Wrenn, a Virginia house-keeper, who reproduces it in the old Virginia style, is served in a manner to tempt the appetite of the most fastidious. None of your Graham's bread and sawdust cracker diet here, but biscuits, rolls, muffins, waffles, and, by no means least, the ever acceptable Sally Lunn, form our bread list for breakfast and supper. All hot and hot, too!—"hot" as Brick Pomeroy's "balls" in that celebrated game of his; hot as the quarters prepared for one of Brick's friends, who is thought by some to be fond of silver.

The meat department is equally well supplied, and as for the desserts,—such pastry, such cake and wine sauce, and such apple dumplings as would have made Charles Lamb dimple into smiles all over his genial face! You know he said he would suspect the honesty of any one who did not love app'e dumpling! I cannot go that far, but if one can be found, who does not love the delicious dish of that name, which Mrs. Wrenn serves up, I should unhesitatingly assert that he had lost his palate.

Fish, as well as flesh and fowl, are furnished hot, brown and done to a turn, but as they belong mostly to the cat kind, and I have a prejudice against marine creatures without scales, I set them down as "uncanonical" and so pass them by. Others are less fastidious and pronounce them excellent, but you know early impressions are proverbially lasting, and I was brought up on the seaside, where we eat crabs as soon as we crawl, and it is the universal opinion that the babies begin to grow fatter and get well from the time that hog fish and spots come in season. Cleanliness is the watchword in all the household departments hereabouts, and civility and courteousness the countersigns of Catawba.

The Proprietor, Colonel T. Golden Wyatt, is a golden man indeed, being a kindly and most gentle gentleman, ever alive to the comfort and enjoyment of his guests, and showing them and all with whom he comes into contact that true politeness, not the veneering of art on an inferior surface, but the real ingrain article springing from the heart and kept up by continual exercise.

"Golden" is he in other respects, as you will see when I tell you he has purchased the entire interest of Catawba, and is now its sole owner. Besides this, he has expended twenty thousand dollars in the improvements he has made since last season, in the Springs and their surroundings. He is a man of liberal views and very extended ideas; hence, in all that he does, he projects himself into the future, and, in providing for present comfort, manages to secure an indefinite continuation of it.

I really think there is something very admirable in the sight presented by a man voluntarily venturing almost his all of worldly goods, not for the mere matter of an immediate and increased pecuniary return, but from the patriotic feeling that the South needs a watering place which shall meet the necessities of Southern people, and who is willing to at least attempt to supply them, even at the risk of individual loss. Such generous confidence should meet with a response equally generous, and the bread which Colonel Wyatt scatters so profusely on the waters of Southern society should afford him a speedy and a golden return.

Catawba is emphatically Southern, and here can be found all the elements that make up the charm of our society; refinement of manners without affectation, geniality without boisterousness, and gaiety without dissipation. Every man and woman does what seemeth good in his or her eyes, and as each individual chooses to do just what is pleasant and proper, we carry into effect the rule of that ancient Abbey known to the Cure of Thewdon (I never read the book, gentlemen, but a friend of mine has,) in which "Fais ce que vous voudrays" was the order of the day. I have heard several translations of the above barbarous French, but I believe that "do as you please" is the true one.

There are a merry crowd of us here, and it grows merrier daily, and especially nightly. Were I a Jenkins, I might touch on the matchless style of Mrs. ——, in an elegant costume composed of silver wheat; the bewitching grace of Mrs. ——, dressed with exquisite simplicity in a set of pearls, or the enchanting loveliness of Miss ——, who wore a single rosebud. But as I am not Jenkins, but only a woman, who tells in a simple style what she sees, and who has an idea that personal privacy has some claims left, (query, why are they not taxed?) I shall merely state that at Catawba, at present, there are more good things than the wonderful springs, and more pretty ones than the trees and flowers!

One is here who is so much a part of Carolina that all he does and says belongs to her and her children, for whom he did so much, and knowing that his very name is more to her than lengthy records of others, I feel that it is no wrong to mention it,—Shrink modestly from notice as much as he may, he is a light which no amount of bushels can hide, and like a city (a kingly one at that) set on a hill, the name of ZEB VANCE will shine with ever steady light so long as North Carolina is a State, or North Carolinians have hearts. You may fancy the delight when, on yesterday, I saw opposite me at table that face which is a true index of its owner's nature, and you may well imagine the Attic salt with which that dinner was seasoned!

It appears to me that his wonderful brilliancy and power of seizing the passing thought and converting it into a medium of interest and enjoyment are ever on the increase, while his readiness and quick witted gaiety grow more and more delightful. The cunning charm of the man and his manner, in my eyes, lies in his utter truthfulness of both; his eyes, which look so squarely into yours, are so honest that I fancy truth has forsaken her ancient and somewhat damp quarters, in the well, and has made her home in their dark depths!—To try to repeat what Gov. Vance says is like an attempt to collect and re-bottle the sparkling effervescence of widow Cliquot's champagne, yet I must indeavor to tell you a few of the remarks which set all who heard them in a roar.

The Governor called for corn bread, on which I remarked my pleasure that his taste for that article and mine were alike.

"Madam," he replied, with the drollest of bows, "it only proves that we are both well bread!" Bread was not the only table article which furnished food for his wit, for a gentleman near him asked a young lady to be helped to peaches and ice cream. The Governor quietly observed: "Of course she can't disown the soft impeachment!"

The same young lady, a little later, reminded the Governor of a conditional promise he had made her, threatening to claim it. "Draw on me, Miss ——," he said, "just when you like, and I will honor the draft!" I observed that I thought he had had enough of going security for other people, at which he laughed that hearty laugh of his, and confessed the payment in the present instance would be more pleasant than that of some security debts he had contracted! In such bright companionship the evening flew quickly away, and as he would relate personal experiences, or tell a little anecdote of which "something reminded" him—all well worthy repetition and preservation,—I felt the most curious combination of feeling I ever experienced.—While almost convulsed with laughter, eminently calculated to make one grow fat, a word or look would come, when, as if at the bidding of an enchanter, a sadness would steal over the spirit and a suspicious moisture would rise to the corners of the eyes, to be chid, however, before it could condense, by another wave of the Magician's wand! He is a Magician, and he holds the people's hearts' strings in his honest hands! One of these days,—long and long deferred be its coming,—Carolina will gather up all he said, as well as all he did, and the lightest jest which now falls from his laughing lips will then be historic. Let us enjoy his sparkling sayings while we may!

I have an engagement with the brightest woman this side of China, who belongs by right to Raleigh, though she now graces another Carolina City, and I must go and fulfil it.

It is neither more nor less than a rash wager entered into last night to beat the said Zebulon B. Vance at the noble and rather fatiguing game of ten pins.

If we succeed in "beating" him, we will do more than some other folks have been able to accomplish! I cannot ask you to wish us success, for though I know your gallantry is beyond need of proof, I also knew that your sympathies on the success, whether in a game of ten pins or in the grand battle of life, are with him, and so I considerately spare you the sacrifice of predilection to politeness.

I remain most truly,

F. D.

ON THURSDAY, THE 22D. DAY OF AUGUST next, will be offered for sale at Auction,

TWO BRICK BUILDINGS,

with five tenements or stores, situated on the South-side of Hay Street, between the Market Square and the Hotel. These stores are among the very best business stands in Fayetteville, and are well known as the McARN PROPERTY.

The first building is forty feet from the Market Square, fronts 40 or 45 feet on Hay Street, and runs back 55 feet. It is a two-story fire-proof building, and is divided into three tenements or stores (each separately fire proof,) by two solid partition walls of brick extending from the ground through the roof. The other building is situated a short distance higher up the same street, and is 42 feet front by 50 deep, two stories high, construction similar to the other, by being divided by a solid brick wall into two stories, separately fire-proof.

The lots on which these builings are situated are ample, running back to Franklin street. The property is so well known that it does not require a very particular discription, especially as any one wanting to buy such property will be sure to examine it for themselves. For any further information apply to Hugh McArn, at Laurinburg, or W. D. SMITH, Fayetteville.

The terms of sale will be one-third cash, one-third in one year, and the remaining third in two years from the day of sale, purchasers to give bond with two good securities and mortgages on the premises, with interest from date and to pay papers.

If desired, any part of the above mentioned property will be sold privately before day of sale by applying to

LIFE INSURANCE.

From the "Home Friend."

The Ætna Life Insurance Co.

IT IS ALWAYS WITH PLEASURE THAT WE observe the evidences of prosperity in the workings of any Life Insurance Company. In our day the advantages of Life Assurance are too apparent to require argument in its behalf; but at the same time, there are not a few who stand ready at all times to seize upon a flying straw and cast it in one side of the scales, in the hope of counterbalancing the weight in the other; and inasmuch as the success of any particular Company is, or should be, an index of the general prosperity of all that are equally well conducted, we take especial pleasure in noticing the present prosperous condition of the Ætna. Our figures are from the pen of Prof. Elizur Wright, late Insurance Commissioner for the State of Massachusetts, whose opinion upon matters of Insurance is perhaps entitled to more weight than that of any other man in the country; not only from his acknowledged abilities as a scholar, but as well from his long familiarity with the details of the science of Insurance.

Statistics are often made up with a view to suit particular cases; but not so with those of Prof. Wright. In the statement before us from this distinguished source, and which we have carefully examined, the value is given of all the policies of the Ætna in force on the first of January 1867; and we take the liberty of inserting here a few of his figures.

At the date above mentioned, there were in force a total of nine hundred and eighty four non participating policies, insuring the sum of one million six hundred and twelve thousand two hundred and ninety dollars; of the present value of one hundred and eighty-nine thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine dollars and sixty cents. There were also in force at the same date, a total of twenty-five thousand and nineteen participating policies, insuring the sum of sixty-five millions four hundred and forty-four thousand three hundred and seventy-nine dollars; of the present value of three million four hundred and forty-nine thousand six hundred and sixty-three dollars and seven cents; making a grand total of twenty-six thousand and three policies actually in force, insuring the sum of sixty-seven millions fifty-six thousand six hundred and sixty-nine dollars, and of the total present value of three million six hundred and thirty-nine thousand four hundred and ninety-two dollars and sixty-seven cents. But as the prosperity of a Company depends not so much upon the amount of its business as upon its solvency—its ability to pay its debts, we go a step farther, and find that while the Ætna has in force this large number of policies, with some small annuities amounting in the whole to three millions four hundred and nineteen thousand one hundred and fifty-eight dollars and sixteen cents of liabilities, it has a total of assets at the same date, of four millions four hundred and one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three dollars and eighty-six cents; or nearly one million of dollars of assets in excess of its liabilities. From the same source we learn that after paying a dividend of fifty per cent. the ensuing year upon those on the ordinary life plan entitled to the same, amounting to two hundred and eighteen thousand one hundred and fifty-five dollars and sixty-two cents, there is an excess of ninety-three thousand one hundred and forty-three dollars and forty-four cents; and that the surplus from the ten-payment life policies exceeds two hundred and eighteen thousand dollars.

In the year 1861 the Company issued five hundred and eighty-nine policies; in 1862 it issued eight hundred and four; in 1863 it issued eighteen hundred and twenty-two, or more than double the number of the previous year; in 1864 it issued four thousand five hundred and seventy-seven, being again more than double the number issued during the preceding year; in 1865 it issued eight thousand eight hundred and fifteen policies, being another increase of nearly a hundred per cent; while during the year 1866 it issued fourteen thousand one hundred and eighty-nine policies, being an increase of five thousand three hundred and seventy-four over the issue of 1865, and being more than twenty-four times the amount of business done in the year 1861, when the new plan of operation commenced. Up to the present time the Company has issued this year between five and six thousand policies; and if the business continue the same during the year, the result will show another very large increase over that of last year.

During the year 1866 the receipts of the Company for premiums and interest were over three and a half millions of dollars, while during the same period the total expenditures were but a fraction over one million; in which sum is included the accrued claims by death to the amount of nearly four hundred thousand dollars. This statement shows that the business of the Company for the last year added to the Surplus Fund, after the payment of all claims, of every nature whatever, the sum of two millions three hundred and sixty-five thousand and ten dollars and eighty-one cents, being a sum larger than the entire previous Surplus.

It has been represented that a large part of the profits of the Company go to enrich the stockholders; but the only foundation that we can find for such allegation, is the fact that the stockholders receive the profits of the small amount of business that is done on the stock, or non-participating plan. The entire profits accruing on the participating plan, except six per cent. paid annually on a capital of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, belong to the insured, and are divided among them every year. Comparisons are useless, and often out of place, and we shall make none; but we do not hesitate to say that the record of the Ætna for the past year, is as honorable and flattering to the Company as it is gratifying to the policy-holders. Its success, as shown by the statement above made, is almost unprecedented; and it seems hardly credible that any Company should have gone on doubling its business, year by year, as the Ætna has done during the period covered by our brief review; yet such is the case, and the most gratifying part of the record is that for the past year, whereby the Surplus Fund has been so very largely increased. These successes are to be attributed, in a great measure, to the management of the Company. The officers, from the President down, have been untiring in their efforts; and they have not forgotten that very important and necessary class of individuals—the Agents, whose co-operation they have secured by affording every facility to those agents that could be desired. We congratulate the Ætna upon its success in the past and its prospects for the future; and we cordially tender the wish that its record for the present year may be as gratifying as that shown by the last annual statement.

The ÆTNA is now issuing

and is doing by far the largest business of any other Company in the Southern States.

OVER 800 PERSONS,

Among the number our most prominent and influential citizens and leading business men, are insured in this department alone.

THE MILITARY COMMISSION.

UNITED STATES vs. TOLAR, POWERS AND WATKINS.

MONDAY MORNING, Aug. 5th, 1867.

James McNeil, negro, sworn: Live in Fayetteville; was there when Bebee was killed. I am a Cabinet-Maker. Bebee was also called Archy Warden; he was killed one Monday. Was not at the market house when he was killed, but was there before and after; was standing at the East end of the market house when Bebee was brought from the guard-house; there was a very large crowd gathered about there. I saw Capt. Tolar, Tom Powers and "Monk Julia" there; saw Miss Massie come down stairs and get into the carriage; was about fifteen feet from the carriage when they got in. Mr. Taylor spoke to them, after they got into the carriage. Miss Massie's mother called Tom Powers to her and talked with him, and as the carriage drove off, I heard her say, "Tom, don't you have anything to do with it," and he shook his head as if to say "no." I soon afterwards asked Mr. Powers if the young lady was not related to him, and he said "yes, she is my niece;" he was weeping. Soon after, Capt. Tolar came up to Powers and took him off, saying to him, as he went, "you will only have to grab him when he comes down the steps, and that will break the ice." That remark frightened me, and I ran off to Mr. Fosier's store as fast as I could,—about forty or fifty yards off.

Cross-Examined: Name is McNeil; came to market house, first, between two and three o'clock. Heard the oldest lady in the carriage say "Tom, don't you have anything to do with that, you go home;" and he shook his head; heard Capt. Tolar tell him, "Tom, you grab him when he first comes down and that will break the ice and that is all you will have to do." They were two or three steps in advance of me at that time. Have no doubt but that those were the words used.

Re-Direct: Did not see anybody speak to Mr. Bond.

In reply to questions by Court: When Tolar spoke to Powers, the full expression was, "Tom, as he comes down the steps you grab him and that will break the ice, and we will put him through."

Second Cross-Examination: I have not mentioned anything about this before, except to a boy at the store the day it occurred, and to Gen. Avery and Col. Haywood since I have been up here. The reason I did not state "and we will put him through," in my direct examination, was because I forgot it.

Phillips Pickett, (negro,) sworn:—Live in Fayetteville; know Archy Bebee or Warden; he goes by both names; saw him the day he was killed; was at the market house. I saw Capt. Tolar, "Monk," Dr. McDuffie and John Hollingsworth there; they were talking together. Hollingsworth had on a pistol. Saw Tom Powers in the market house sitting on Becky Bowe's bench; there was a good many persons there. Saw Mr. Bond help the ladies in the carriage; heard Mr. John Maltsby ask Mr. Bond if Bebee was found guilty and Mr. Bond said "yes," and then he, Maltsby, went back and told Mr. James Jones, and some other words passed between them. Did not see anything happen until Bebee got out on the pavement, when a rush was made at him and I saw "Monk" with a knife trying to cut him. After that they had a scuffle and Bebee and the officers with him all fell down together; as he was rising up Capt. Tolar stepped up and shot him. Can't say what was the size of the pistol; am certain it was Tolar who fired the pistol; he had on a shawl; I was nearer Bebee than Tolar, when the pistol fired. Sheriff was right by the side of Bebee and had hold of him when the pistol fired. Saw Tolar put the pistol under his shawl on his left side; saw Ed. Powers there and Ralph Lutterloh; saw Sam Hall there, did not see him talk with any of the prisoners.

Cross Examined: Have lived in Fayetteville all my life. I can't say for certain, that it was Dr. McDuffie talking with Tolar and others, but recollect the others well. I saw Mr. John Maltsby go to the carriage, but did not see Mr. Tom Powers go there. Heard Mr. Jones tell Mr. Maltsby to "mention that other thing," and Maltsby said "I will."—Did not see any assault on Bebee, until he got out on the pavement; then heard some one say "shoot the damned rascal," "shoot him," and an assault was made upon him. When Tolar fired, he shot over the crowd. Sheriff Hardie was on one side of the prisoner (Bebee) and Wemiss on the other. Mr. Faircloth was just before or behind. Did not hear Tolar say anthing at the time he fired.

Re-Direct:—Just after the pistol fired, I heard some one say "it was a very good shot," and one say that he "gloried in his spunk." Do not know who said it; no names were called; reference was made to the man who fired the pistol.

Court adjourned to this (Tuesday) 11 o'clock A. M.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—B. P. Williamson & Co., give notice of a resumption of operations at the "North State Iron and Brass Works," recently destroyed by fire.—This enterprising firm have thus exhibited an energy and public spirit that cannot be too highly commended or appreciated.

See the "Through Freight" announcement of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company, C. B. Allen, Agent. This is the age of competition and our Railroad Companies seem to have entered into the spirit of it.

Mechanics' Tools, Labor-Saving Pumps, &c.: Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society of New York: Hutchison, Burroughs & Co., Charlotte, General Agents for N. C. We have been shown a letter from J. W. Alexander, Secretary of this Company, to their Traveling Agent, in which he says they have written policies, amounting to more than $20,000,000, since Feb. 1., and expect to write over $50,000,000 during the year.—Many prominent men in this State are insured in this Company,—among them Hon. R. R. Bridgers, Gen. Jno. A. Young, Judge Howard, Prof. Kerr, &c.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Thomas Weaver, colored, charged, with assaulting, abusing, and otherwise maltreating and threatening to kill Angeline Weaver, colored, at the African Church, in this City on Sunday, was returned to the County Court.

Edward Brown, colored, charged with attempting to kill and steal a cow, was returned to the County Court.

TRADE SALE.—The public will do well to remember the great Catalogue Trade Sale, by Messrs. Pulliam, Jones & Co., which is to commence to-morrow, the 7th inst., at 10 o'clock A. M. The stock to be disposed of consist of Groceries, Hardware, Cutlery, Glass and China ware, Ready made Clothing, Hats, Shoes, &c., &c.—making a grand and attractive assortment.

NEW MUSIC.—We are indebted to Messrs. Oliver Ditson & Co., Musical Publishers, Boston, for the following peices of new music, just issued: The moss grown well; Kiss me when I'm weary, Love; Launch the Life-boat; Let me fold thee close, Mavourneen,—Songs; and Mugby Junction Gallop and Amazonian March,—Instrumental.

REGISTRATION IN WAKE.—The Board of Registrars for District No. 1. give notice that they will be in session as follows:

At Raleigh—Aug. 13, 16, 17, 26, 27, 28.
" Dunnsville—Sept. 5, 6, 7.
" Forestville—" 2, 3, 4.
" Rolesville—Aug. 19, 20, 21.
" Wakefield—" 22, 23, 24.
" Eagle Rock—" 29, 30, 31.

A TREAT IN PROSPECT.—THE MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION.—Our citizens will be gratified to learn that the Ladies' Memorial Association have requested Theo. H. Hill Esq., to repeat, for the benefit of the Association, the Poem delivered by him on the occasion of the recent Commencement of the Pittsboro Scientific Academy, and that Mr. Hill has consented to do so. The time and place of delivery will be hereafter announced. We hope that our citizens will evince their appreciation of native genius—to say nothing of the object for which the Poem is to be recited,—by giving Mr. Hill an overflowing house. We predict, for all who may attend an agreeable evening and a rare literary entertainment.

SWAMP LANDS.—The recent publication by the Literary Board, exhibiting the character and advantages of the Swamp Lands owned by the State, we are glad to observe, has awakened considerable interest throughout the Country. We have seen flattering notices of it in many of the leading papers of the North and North-West. Better than this, we learn that a German Emigrant Association have submitted a proposition for the purchase of the entire body,—further particulars of which we shall soon be able to give the public. This is encouraging.—We know of nothing that would help more, just now, in the development of our resources and in general recuperation, than the immigration to the State of large numbers of industrious, frugal Germans.

Gen. Gwynn left the city on yesterday morning, on a professional visit to Hyde, in the interest of the Literary Board.

NEW PAPERS.—S. H. Browne, Marion C. H., S. C., proposes to publish the "Christian Neighbor," at a place, time and price to be hereafter determined upon. Persons interested in the success of such a publication will please address Mr. B. as above. Its main purpose will be to infuse into the hearts of all our people the conserving spirit of Christianity.

Mr. William Brenard proposes to publish, in Edenton, a weekly paper, at $3 per annum, to be called "The Southern Patriot." The paper is to be independent in tone, and will no doubt be deserving of a liberal patronage. The present address of the Publisher is Hertford, Perquimans Co.

"DIXIE COOKERY," by Mrs. V. C. Barringer, may be obtained at the Book-store of Branson & Farrar,—to whom we are indebted for a copy. We have heretofore noticed this apparently excellent work, and have the promise of a more extended criticism.

Tuesday Morning Dispatches.

MEXICAN AND NEW ORLEANS NEWS.

GALVESTON, Aug. 5,—P. M.

Juarez issued a grandiloquent address on the 15th. He says the good sons of Mexico, fighting alone, without the assistance of anyone, have preserved liberty. He has not compromised the independence or sovereignty of the Republic.

The election will be ordered immediately.

The Press favors a general amnesty.

The country will be divided into six military districts. Escobedo and others commanding.

Lecesabow' forces refuse to recognize Juarez.

Business at the Custom House for July: Exports $4,155,689. Imports $65,588.

There were nine deaths from yellow fever and eight from cholera last week.

Gen. Sheridan issued an order this morning, removing Joseph Hernandez, City Treasurer for reasons similar to those mentioned in the orders re-adjusting the Board of Aldermen. Stoddardt Howell is appointed Treasurer in his stead.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5, P. M.

Mr. Pierpont continued the argument in the Surratt trial to-day. He will probably conclude to-morrow.

Receipts of Internal Revenue to-day $1,400,000.

The reports which have been in circulation, regarding ill feeling between Secretary Seward and the Mexican Minister, are unfounded.

Romero goes home because his health and private affairs require his presence in Mexico.

DESTRUCTION OF OIL WELLS.

PETROLIA, ONTARIO, Aug. 5, P. M.

There was great destruction of oil wells and oil here on Saturday night. Twenty-five acres and ten wells were burned, with all the machinery destroyed. Loss $80,000.

CUBAN AND MEXICAN NEWS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5, P. M.

Havana advices to the 31st. ult. have been received.

Great preparations were making to celebrate the laying of the Cuban Cable.

The Steamer Virginia brought City of Mexico dates of 20th, Vera Cruz 24th, and Sisal 29th of July: The presidential election was progressing peaceably. The Generals adverse to Juarez were organizing forces in the mountains. The Indians were making bold incursions into the white settlements near Yucatan.

ALTERCATION BETWEEN BOTTS AND HAWKSHURST—GOV. PIERPOINT.

RICHMOND, Aug. 5,—P. M.

To-day, in the U. S. Grand Jury-room, an altercation took place between Hawkshurst, President of the late Convention, and Jno. Minor Botts,—the latter accusing the former of having, by trickery, brought about an adjournment of that body to prevent Botts addressing it.

Hawkshurst denied the charge and addressed a letter to Judge Underwood declining any longer to serve on the jury with Botts.

Gov. Peirpoint left the city to-day to stump the Southern portion of the State.

FLORIDA.—The "flowery land" is enjoying that blessed condition of things which gives the world no news. Everything is quiet on that luxuriant peninsula. Even Radicals have to be still and enjoy the afternoon siesta. The thermometer boils high, but there are breezes from the embracing sea—the Atlantic ocean and the Gulf of Mexico emulating each other in winnowing coolness and fragrance round the smiling land. Besides there are the odorous orange groves.

Registration proceeds without excitement, and the crops are growing rapidly without much labour. A rigid quarantine keeps out epidemics, and a steady immigration is populating all the waste places. The only matter of interest to the public that has agitated Florida for a month past was the arrest, in Tallahassee, of two members of the late Radical Convention there, on the charge of having taken a negro into a swamp and beaten him in an outrageous manner.

CATHERINE M. SEDGEWICK.—This well known authoress died on Wednesday morning at the residence of Mr. Minot, near Roxbury, Massachusetts, in the eighty-seventh year of her age. She first appeared before the public as a writer during the year 1822, in a novel entitled "A New England Tale," which was very successful and obtained for the authoress a decided reputation. After that she wrote and published a large number of works, besides contributing largely to magazine literature. The deceased was a most estimable lady and her death will be sincerely regretted by a large circle of friends.

The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says: "The Union Committee nomination of General Grant will probably be followed up with a mass meeting in Union Square in the course of a few days. Arrangements for some such demonstration are already under way, and among the persons most actively engaged in it, I am informed, are prominent politicians of both parties. The whole movement General Grant's best friends pronounce inopportune and unseemly, and there is not the slightest probability that the General himself will be dragged into it."

RADICAL HATE.—We give eight millions of dollars for certain bleak Russian possessions in America, and probably expend the money wisely. But it is proposed at the same time that we give indefinite millions to keep ten Southern States, the most beautiful and fertile portion of God's earth, under military rule, to destroy their labour. What is the advantage of the Russian tract to us in comparison with the advantage that the restoration and the revived prosperity of the South should be? Where is the sense of paying eight millions to bring in the former and probably ten times as many millions to keep the latter virtually excluded?—Louisville Journal.

GENERAL EARLY IN THE CASE.—It is stated in the Frederick (Md.) Republican, that the banks in Frederick have instituted suit against the corporation for $200,000, claimed to have been paid by them for ransom, when Gen. Early captured the place during the late war, in July, 1864.

It is one of the rumors of the day that some time in January last the Emperor Maximilian made a formal proposition to this Government to put himself on board of a man-of-war, provided Juarez would do the same, and await the decision, by a popular election, of the people of Mexico between the Imperial rule and that of the Liberals.

Flour, to be delivered in two weeks, was sold in Staunton last Saturday for seven dollars per barrel. That is coming down to about the right thing.—Valley Virginian.

ALL STATE

RAILWAY LINES

FROM CHARLOTTE AND ALL POINTS ON THE N. C. AND ITS CONNECTING RAIL ROADS TO THE SEABOARD AT WILMINGTON N. C., OR NORFOLK VA., via GOLDSBORO;

ALSO VIA PETERSBURG AND CITY POINT.

The Railways composing the ALL STATE RAILWAY line have recently agreed to unite in a route to all the Northern markets on equal terms and charges via our own ports, or by way of Norfolk or Petersburg Va., to and from the North.

No discrimination in favor of any place or city, only so far as to carry the great products of the State as well as return merchandize over the Railway lines largely owned by the State.

This arrangement, while it gives as great facilities and as cheap rates as by any other line, will aid in paying something into the State Treasury and into the common school fund, by which taxes will be lightened and the poor children educated. These are some of the reasons for a change of route to pass by Goldsboro.

The N. C. R. R., the Wil. & Weldon R. R., and the Seaboard and Roanoke Rail Road Companies, have agreed that all goods, not otherwise specially directed, shall pass by way of Goldsboro, for Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, at the same rates and in the same time that they can be carried by any other route.

The N. C. R. R. and Wil. & Weldon R. R. have just been arranged and freight trains now run in close connection from Portsmouth to Charlotte.

HOW A MAN'S HAIR IS BRUSHED BY MACHINERY.

There are a number of establishments throughout London, however, for brushing the hair by machinery. This is an invention far superior to anything of the kind in vogue in America. Enter one of these rooms, and you will notice a revolving shaft extending along the ceiling, with pulleys upon it at regular intervals. Beneath each pulley is a barber's chair, with a flexible band of india rubber extending down from above. You are placed in the chair, sitting upright, and the operator takes his position behind you with his brush, which is of a cylindrical shape, about six inches in diameter, the bristles extending from axis outward. A spindle goes through it with a handle at each end. This spindle, which is held by the barber with both hands, is stationary, while the brush revolves about it with lightning velocity, when the band which hangs down from the shaft above it is placed around a pulley on the brush. The elasticity of the india rubber band is such that the operator can hold the brush, turning all the time, a foot above your head, two feet behind you, just touch your hair or sweep through it with a velocity of a hundred revolutions a minute, while a cloud of dust and dandruff falls down in front of you, leaving your head perfectly free and clean from all impurities, more than any shampooing process could accomplish. The whole thing is done in an instant almost. They have hard brushes and soft brushes, and the sensation as they whirl around your head and through your hair is electrical. A morning headache disappears almost immediately; and any one who has experienced the luxury of having his hair brushed by machinery finds it a pleasure which, in future, he will not willingly forego. There are hundreds of these establishments in England, and their number is constantly increasing.

From the Baltimore Sun.

AN AFFECTING SCENE IN COURT—A SOLOMON ON THE BENCH—A CHILD CLAIMED BY TWO MOTHERS.

Two women claimed one child before Judge Alexander, of Baltimore, on Wednesday. After some evidence had been heard and the case postponed, Mrs. Perry asked the Judge to have the child kept in custody, so that it might not be taken beyond the jurisdiction of the court. At this point Judge Alexander directed two chairs to be placed at one end of the court-room. He then requested Mrs. Perry to take one of the seats, and Mrs. Ferrell the other. The child during the hearing had been standing upon the platform at the side of the Judge.—Judge Alexander then turned to the child and told it to go to its mother. The child started down, and then turned around and asked the Judge, "Can I go to the mother I want?" The Judge said, "Yes, child," when she sprang forward and threw herself into the arms of Mrs. Ferrell, exclaiming: "This is the mother I want." She was received with passionate kisses. During these proceedings the eyes of the large number of women as well as men present were directed to the movements of the child, and when her choice was made, the women rose to their feet and gave vent to their feelings in exclamations of delight. "The darling child," says one. "She knows her mother," says another. Sobs and tears accompanied the demonstration. The countenances of men were not without emotion, and it was some time before the quiet of the court-room was restored.

CURING A NEW DISEASE. Dr. Forden was protessing his ability to conquer disease in its most aggravative forms, by the medium of his wonderful curative, the "King of Pain," a darkey approached the carriage, in which the Doctor was seated, and exclaimed:

"Mighty good Doctor, I 'spect, but I bet dat he couldn't cure de disease wot I got."

'I can do it,' confidently exclaimed the Doctor, 'let me prescribe for your complaint. What is the matter with you?'

'Got an ole pocket book, and nuffin in it,' responded the darkey with a broad grin, which spread through the crowd.

'Mighty bad complaint,' remarked the Doctor, 'I have had a touch of that disease myself, and know exactly how to cure it. Now, my colored friend, instead of loafing about Montgomery doing nothing, just you travel towards somebody's plantation, take off that old coat of yours and work hard, from sun up till sunset, as I have done since I left General Lee's command; and that old pocket book of yours will soon be full enough to get you all you want. If you have any other disease, I'll cure that besides, for I want to make a happy, contented man of you, while I am about it.'

The darkey had no more to say, and the 'King of Pain' sold faster than ever.

Mostly Mail.

At a club dinner with a party of Nantucket people, not long ago, one of the guests remarked that the Nantucket horses were celebrated for their general worthlessness, imbecility, and marvellous slowness. He said that a citizen sold one to a cavalry officer during the war, and warranted him to be a good war-horse. The soldier came back afterwards in a towering passion.

"As how?" said the Nantucketer.

"Why, there's not a bit of 'go' in him and yet you warranted him as a good war-horse."

"Yes, I did, and by George he is a good war-horse; he'd sooner die than run!"

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish, as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 2d, 1867.]

WHEREAS, NO legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized, affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion, or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when the said State, by a vote of its legislature, elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article fourteen; and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States, nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

SCHUYLER COLFAX,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th. section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

Sec. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

Sec. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowlege and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, Houses of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States. Approved July 2, 1862.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2, 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God;" to which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty days' public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general, to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held, as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general, within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.

Sec. 5 That if, according to said returns, the constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the votes of the registered electors qualified as herein specified, cast at said election, at least one-half of all the registered voters voting upon the question of such ratification, the president of the convention shall transmit a copy of the same, duly certified, to the President of the United States, who shall forthwith transmit the same to Congress, if then in session, and if not in session, then immediately upon its next assembling; and if it shall moreover appear to Congress that the election was one at which all the registered and qualified electors in the State had an opportunity to vote freely and without restraint, fear or the influence of fraud, and if Congress shall be satisfied that such constitution meets the approval of a majority of the qualified electors in the State, and if the said constitution shall be declared by Congress to be in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is supplementary, and the other provisions of said act shall have been complied with, and the said constitution shall be approved by Congress, the State shall be declared entitled to representation, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom as herein provided.

Sec. 6. That all elections in the States mentioned in the said "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," shall, during the operation of said act, be by ballot; and all officers making the said registration of voters and conducting said elections shall, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the duties of their said office, and the oath prescribed by the act approved July 2, 1862, entitled "An act to prescribe an oath of office:" Provided, That if any person shall knowingly and falsely take and subscribe any oath in this act prescribed, such person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be subject to the pains, penalties and disabilities which by law are provided for the punishment of the crime of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Sec. 7. That all expenses incurred by the several commanding generals, or by virtue of any orders issued or appointments made by them under or by virtue of this act, shall be paid out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 8. That the convention for each State shall prescribe the fees, salary, and compensation to be paid to all delegates and other officers, and agents herein authorized or necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act, not herein otherwise provided for, and shall provide for the levy and collection of such taxes on the property in such State as may be necessary to pay the same.

Sec. 9. That the word "article" in the sixth section of the act to which this is supplementary shall be construed to mean "section."
